Online courses and exclusive web content

Access to our unique online courses is free for all members. Currently available are Pigs and Pork, Catch and Cook, Magic of Mushrooms and the Online Game Course, Preserves and Bread.

Each course reflects the experience of a day at River Cottage, with the luxury of being able to follow each course at your own pace. Each includes video demonstrations and recipes which can be watched again and again.

As each new course is released members will be given instant access (each online course is available to non-members at a cost of £20 per course).

Members will also have exclusive access to certain web content.

Hugh dates

As a member, you will be offered tickets for all Hugh courses first, before they are released to the public. Thus ensuring that we give members the best chance and choice of attending a Hugh hosted day or evening. Places are limited so if you are thinking of becoming a member and are interested in a Hugh course, don't delay!

Hugh's Summer Party

Hugh's throwing open the gates of Park Farm this summer for a party! He'd like you, our members, to come and join him and our favourite River Cottage friends for a really special, and typically River Cottage night, that's packed full of fun. Start with a glass of sparkling cider in the garden, before feasting on fantastic River Cottage food. Afterwards you'll be dancing your socks off to a local band.
